What is Psychic Channeling?

Evanne Jordan

Psyhic Channeling is reading the energy of other people, spirit guides, animals, or the deceased by connecting with one's own Spirit Guide or higher energy. When a channeler makes a connection with another being's energy, he or she is able to "read" the energy. The information may come through as words, visions, pictures or feelings.

A Spirit Guide is one's higher or intuitive self. We access our Spirit Guide or higher energy when we "channel" or connect with another being's energy. Everyone has the capacity to access this level of awareness. Intuitive ability is simply another form of intelligence, and is accessible to anyone who has the interest and desire to utilize that intelligence.

Psychic Channeling is not fortune telling and does not deal with predictions. All beings have free will and the right to make their own choices. Channeling is simply reading energy and accessing information. Those receiving the information choose to make their own decisions based on, or not based on, the information.

If a person asks a "yes" or "no" question, I will usually provide both scenarios, as in "if you decide to do this...this is how it will play out" or "here are the pros and cons of either path". People need to know and believe that they are more powerful than any psychic power and that they have free will to change their decisions and courses of action.

Psychic Channeling changed my life and I believe it will change the life of anyone who chooses to pursue this spiritual path. Psychic Channeling did not change who I was as a person. It led me on my life's path to the real me, to my true dreams and visions, and to my true life purpose.

I believe that everyone can create their own light and create their own life! If you choose to open up to greater spiritual awareness, you will find a greater clarity in whatever you would like to achieve and how to make that happen. As my Spirit Guide, Ish, told me several years ago, "Create your own light and you can create your own life!" ✨

Evanne Jordan has been practicing and teaching psychic work for more than two decades. Under the guidance of Sanaya Roman, author of Opening to Channel, Evanne was introduced to her Spirit Guide "Ish" or Ishmael. Ish is, in essence, Evanne's "third eye" through which she can access her psychic abilities. Through Ish, Evanne is able to contact and channel voices and information from the Spirit Guides of living human beings and animals, as well as the deceased. Her special gift allows her to focus on psycho-spiritual areas such as the inner child, relationships, health, career, dream analysis, past life readings and aura readings. Additionally, Evanne has taught many others how to work with their own Spirit Guides in private sessions and in her "psychic awareness" seminars. Evanne offers readings in person, by telephone, e-mail and audio-tape. She is available for private, corporate, or business events. www.psychicreadings-evanne.com or (925) 288-9046.
